Incident: Theft Charges Filed – Vehicle Theft
Press Release Date: December 12, 2019
Case Numbers: CA-19-006671

On Friday October 18, 2019 at approximately 3:45 p.m. officers from the Cary Police Department responded to the Cary Car Wash located at 820 W. Northwest Hwy. for a report of a stolen vehicle. Upon arrival officers learned the vehicle was stolen while being dried after a car wash. The offender was described as a tall, skinny black male wearing a gray sweatshirt and black pants. The stolen vehicle, a Jeep Grand Cherokee, was last seen driving westbound on Route 14 from the business.

Cary Police Investigators later learned the vehicle stolen from Cary was used in a crime in Chicago, and two male subjects were arrested by the Chicago Police Department during that incident. Through further investigation Cary Police Investigators were able to identify 18 year-old Dimari Terry of Chicago, Illinois as the subject who stole the vehicle from Cary on October 18, 2019.

An arrest warrant was obtained for Terry for one (1) count of Theft Over $10,000, a class 2 felony. Bond for this charge was set at $40,000 (10% applies). Terry is currently confined in the Cook County Jail for charges relating to the incident that occurred in Chicago.
